ANNUAL PUBLICATION OF THE STUDENTS OF
STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
FARMVILLE - - - - VIRGINIA

"Hard to win and hard to lose,
This is the friendship I would choose."

To those whose sympathetic understanding has drawn us closer together in times of sorrow; whose undying interest in our happiness has made joyous days that much brighter; whose loyalty has given our vision of life a broader and sounder perspective and taught the divine serenity of a true friendship —

TO OUR ROOMMATES,
this 1937 Virginian is appreciatively dedicated

Presentable

The staff of '37 herewith presents a personal diary of your college year, hoping that in the future you will read and recall gay, carefree days flavored with sadness and spiced with humor. It is our sincere desire that each of you feels that this book is your own record and that somewhere within these pages you will find a corner which means more to you than to anyone else.

At the faculty meeting on May 5, 1936, the following resolutions were read:

As this is the last regular faculty meeting of the session of 1935-36, Dr. Wynne has appointed a committee from the Department of Education to present at this time for the Department a written expression of our appreciation of the work of Miss Mary P. Jones and Miss Mary D. Pierce, who will terminate at the end of this session their formal connection with the college.

We realize that they have rendered excellent, devoted, and untiring service to this college and to the cause of education in their constructive outlook, devoted spirit, kindly helpfulness to students, loyal cooperation with their colleagues, and vital interest in the life of the community.

Feeling that they are our friends, we know that they will continue to help us with their advice, and we sincerely hope that in their less strenuous activities after retirement they may find a large measure of happiness.

We move, as a committee, that a copy of this expression be recorded in the minutes of the Faculty, and that copies thereof be signed by the President of the College and the Secretary of the Faculty and be presented to Miss Jones and Miss Pierce.

GRACE E. MIX,

S. M. HOLTON,

M. B. COYNER, for the Committee.

System

It is something to be proud of, our Honor System, something to uphold and to cherish. Each member of this Student Body is a living part of it and, signing the code of honor, promises to herself and to God that the part which is herself shall bring no discord into the song of friendship, work and play, but only the finest harmony. Wonder how each part can be beautiful when they are so unequally divided? Well, the best of anyone is beautiful, even if it is small enough to seem to lose itself in the crowd. Nothing good is ever lost. Everyone who performs some task nobly, living up to the best that is within her, is creating a feeling that will weave itself into our college life to make it fine.

The best—that is what our Honor System calls for. May we keep its spirit always, as a challenge and a guide.

The Y. W. C. A. is a fellowship of women students and faculty who are seeking full and creative life for themselves and for all people.

The Y. W. C. A. declares its purpose to be: "We, the members of the Young Women's Christian Association of Farmville, unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God."

"We determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people."

"In this task we seek to understand Jesus and follow him."

ADVISORY BOARD

DR. GEORGE W. JEFFERS.....	Chairman
MISS E. LUCILE JENNINGS	MISS MARY NICHOLS
M. BOYD COYNER

We are reminded that our lives, which we would live fully, are not very simple any more. We are forced to live affected by and affecting the lives of millions of men and women daily. Since our life is one in which we are all bound together, is it possible to live fully except as we live in relation to those to whom we are bound in daily life? Is it possible to live creatively except as we sense in a real way our relation to these complex patterns and currents and put ourselves in tune with the rhythm of life?

We can grow only as we identify ourselves with and sense our relation to all the elements in the life of our world. All must work together—finding and sharing life—to build a beautiful world before any of us can be truly rich and creative in our lives. This is the challenge of the Y. W. C. A. to the school and world today.

Click, click, and off go lights throughout all dormitories. The ten-thirty bell has sounded its peal, and the hall and house presidents end the busy day with the familiar phrase, "lights out," reminding that all should be asleep. Sleep—never for some girls, when there is anything else to do. They are the girls who yell, play radios too loud during study hour or afterwards, or even wash after light bell, and regret it the next morning, when they go stumbling, sleepy-eyed, to breakfast. What a miserable life they make the hall presidents lead. Of course a gentle reminder is necessary for these girls, and most of the time a call-down follows on its heels. Study hall looms over the heads of just such girls as these. No one likes that. One whole week, a definite place to study, a definite length of time, no talking, no laughing, no letter writing, nothing but deathly silence and bored study. What a miserable life!

Besides this duty, the House Council has another one, which we consider of equal importance, and that is to know just where they may find the girls, in case Johnnie would call, or Mother would call to give a permission and we were studying in another building or attending a meeting elsewhere. Of course these calls would never be got, if it wasn't for the House Council.

Heartfelt appreciation is extended to this untiring body of hard workers. A desire to cooperate with other organizations, tact, patience, understanding, and thoughtful consideration are just some of the attributes of the House Council.

Alpha Kappa Gamma

To foster and recognize that quality which distinguishes the leader from her followers—this is the two-fold purpose of Alpha Kappa Gamma, national honorary fraternity for leadership. The true leader humbly seeks service, devoting her talents for the good of others. Alpha Kappa Gamma embodies the spiritual virtues of service, modesty, and forgetfulness of self-ambition in the urge to give to its Alma Mater and the individuals with whom it contacts the best it has to give.

Circus

Mob scene—pink lemonade—pop corn—confetti, and Will's yelling, "La-dies and g-e-e-n-tlemen" — The circus of course! Barnum and Bailey brought right to our own gymnasium. In rapid succession came various stunts, "Martins and the Coys," songs, freaks from all over the world, a political rally, and trained animals. Then came the crowning of the circus queen. What a coronation with two queens to wear the crown! At one end of the gym we saw the junior "Black Cat Inn" with cokes and cakes; at the other, the senior dance booth with a nickelodeon wailing "Organ Grinder's Swing." On both sides were games of chance, movie stars, and fortune tellers. And such barkers as each had!

Oh! it was a gala occasion without a care in sight, for it was the one evening when for a while we might turn back the hands of time and enjoy again the frivolities of our happy, light-hearted childhood.

To serve as a chronicle of events and as a means of expression of journalistic talent is the purpose of The Rotunda, the weekly news-publication of S. T. C. It fosters such journalistic interests as news and feature writing, headline writing, and makeup, and the business angles of ad-selling and circulation. The close proximity of the printing office initiates those interested in the linotype and various other phases of newspaper editing and publishing.

The Rotunda endeavors to reflect the current attitudes of the S. T. C. campus, as well as to cooperate in spirit with the aims and ideals of students and administration. Its policy is to publish only such news and other articles as are appreciated and welcomed by its readers, avoiding sensationalism, radicalism, and extreme viewpoints which represent small minorities. The editorial staff of The Rotunda attempts to present problems actually felt within the student activities.

The Dramatic Club was founded about thirty years ago. It has gradually become larger, including more students who desire dramatic training in college.

There are three outstanding purposes of the club: to develop in its members and in the college community an appreciation for the best in drama; to give an opportunity to its members for the development of special talent in any phase of play production; and to serve the college by aiding in the various entertainments put on by classes and organizations.

There are eight departments in the club, representing the various phases of play production. Weekly departmental meetings are held for the purpose of learning the theory of play production, which is applied in the presentation of many one-act plays and two full length plays throughout the year. During the 1936-'37 session the Dramatic Club presented "Mary, the Third" by Rocheal Crothers and "Cradle Song" by Gregoris and Mario Martinez Sierra.

Another major activity of the Dramatic Club is the annual Southside Virginia Dramatic Tournament for high schools. About fifteen schools compete in the production of one-act plays, a silver cup being given to the winner in the group of larger schools, and another in the group of smaller schools.

A lot of work, yes, but there's fun in full measure!

The Freshman Commission is composed of twelve girls chosen by popular vote from the freshman class. The purpose of this organization is to bring about a closer relationship between the freshman class and the Y. W. C. A. Many of its activities are closely connected with the work of the Y. W. C. A. The Service Committee of the Y. W. C. A. calls upon the Freshman Commission to help deliver baskets of food and to serve in the soup kitchen at the Training School.

Several customs of Farmville originated with this organization, such as the Hanging of the Greens and Sunday Morning Watch. Each year the Commission gives a Japanese Bazaar as a means of obtaining money. This year the Bazaar was given in the form of a Japanese tea, at which unique articles from Japan were sold.

There are some of us who have showed unusual interest and ability in creative writing and in literary study. These students compose Beorc Eh Thorn, which is a local honorary society. It was organized for the purpose of promoting and encouraging extra-curricular reading, study, and creative writing in all literary forms. The members of the society enjoy the stimulus given by individual and group criticism and appreciation.

"Who ever heard of a Latin joke? A Valentine party in Latin style? Beautiful Christmas wishes in Latin? And you say the Romans used slang? Why, it's incredible! I thought Latin was that dead . . . that prosaic . . ."

Of course you did, but for every mistaken idea, there's a cure. If you had such an idea about Latin, or the classics, you'll be forgiven. That is, if you'll join Sodalitas Latina, the Latin Club. Don't hesitate because you are not taking Latin. If you are interested in Latin, there's a place for you. The club meets only once a month, but the accomplishments of that one meeting!! Lo, it reveals wonderful facts—the modernism of the Romans (would you believe Miss America of 1936 is copying Miss Ancient Rome's hair style?), the origin of many of our holidays, and the fights in the Roman Senate (ours are practically duplicates).

And there's the beautiful, the immortal love story. . . . That's the theme of the play Sodalitas Latina helped put on.

'Tisn't idle talk—we really do all these things, and more, in Sodalitas Latina.

The purpose of Le Cercle Français is to give the French students and those who are interested in the language an opportunity to learn through social contact some songs, games, and customs of the French, and to help them gain a fuller understanding and appreciation of the language itself.

One bright day some genius was inspired with an idea of “corralling” all the girls who seemed to be lost in future dreams. Did they have an “eye” for this future knowing that “the way to a man’s heart” is the trail of hot biscuits? This is good psychology. Then, there’s always a sock to be darned or a button to be sewed on. Why not be scientific about this matter? From this nucleus the club evolved and is still evolving.

Athletic Association Council

I wish to express my appreciation and thanks to the A. A. Council, Managers of Sports, the Student Body, and Faculty for their cooperation and untiring willingness to work which has characterized this year's outstanding athletic achievements. I am proud to have had the opportunity of working with so fine a group and hope they will always remember—

“For when the great Scorer comes
To write against our name,
It matters not whether we won or lost,
But how we played the game.”

ADVISER

Mrs. Fitzpatrick

Swimming has definitely gained a place this year in Farmville's "world of sports." For the first time it has been represented by a manager on the Athletic Council. This is indeed a notable step. Also, two meets occupy places on the calendar of events. One was held the first of the year with the Freshmen capturing the crown, and the Sophomores receiving honorable mention. This meet was a carnival in which each class put on a very entertaining stunt. The other one, held in March, was a contest to show individual skill in diving and swimming. We are indeed proud of the progress made by swimming this year and are looking forward to even greater achievements next year.

School starts, and with it comes the game that brings out the entire school—the game that starts off our rivalry between classes. Hockey, the first game of the year, is climaxed by the class games that cause an uproar between every class. The seniors are determined to beat the juniors, and the juniors are determined to beat the seniors. Whereas the proud “sophs” are just compelled to beat the freshmen, thus making the poor things wear “rat caps” till Christmas. These are thoughts in the minds of the members of the respective teams as they meet on the A. A. field just before Thanksgiving to prove their ability to the school.

Squads

Knock, knock, who's these? You ought to know it's me (or rather I.) Well, kids, here we are at the end of a grand old year. Remember all our good times and those tests we had to study for. Here's hoping my neighbors will be as good next year, as you all have been this year. Best of luck and here's wishing you the best of everything. Remember

JUNIOR SQUAD

This year the juniors proved victorious over the seniors—and would you guess it!!! Those “rats” beat the proud “sophs,” and thus banished their much-hated rat caps. Even though the “sophs” and seniors emerged with a little hurt pride, a good time was had by all, especially by the freshmen and juniors. The colors “red and white” were lauded with victory, and on goes the rivalry between the colors “red and white” and “green and white.”

Oh! boy!
I'll be seeing you, kid.

Granddaughters' Club

The Granddaughters' Club is composed of girls whose mothers have attended this college.

It has acquired the name of Granddaughters' Club from the viewpoint that the school is considered the grandmother and those attending school now, its grandchildren.

The purpose of this club is the reviving of old friendships and keeping the alumnae in touch with its present members.

We have chosen this year as our project the contribution to the Jennie Masters' Tabb Fund.

The purpose of the Pan-Hellenic Association is to establish standards of excellence along every line of sorority endeavor: as an organization, as a factor in school, as a force in the lives of graduate members; to furnish a forum for the discussion of all matters of interest to sororities; to define a code of sorority ethics; to regulate bid day; to pass and enforce rushing rules; and to serve as a court of appeal in the case of all Pan-Hellenic difficulties. As social functions, the Pan-Hellenic Association gives three significant functions. In the fall the organization sets aside a special time for an open forum discussion; in the winter quarter, a tea or musical program is given; and, in the spring, installation of officers is the important event.

The Debate Club trains students for intercollegiate debates and public speaking contests. The record in debate and oratory has been outstanding during the past few years. Members of the club were delegates to the Grand Eastern Tournament held at Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C., on April 8, 9, and 10. In recent years representatives have rated high in the South Atlantic Forensic Tournament.

Pi Kappa Delta is a national forensic honor fraternity. It is the largest of the societies in this field. The Virginia Alpha chapter is one of the one hundred and four chapters in thirty-four states. It recognizes those girls who do outstanding work in debate and oratory in the Debate Club. Members of Pi Kappa Delta represented Farmville at the National Pi Kappa Delta Convention held at Johnson City, Tennessee, on April 2nd and 3rd. During the past two years Agnes Bondurant and Margaret Pollard, alumnae, and Dudley Allen have won the highest honor in Pi Kappa Delta and are eligible to wear diamond keys of the fraternity.

The College Choir was organized for the purpose of developing an appreciation in the higher forms of choral work, oratorio, selections from well-known operas, and standard works from the basis of activity.

It is one of the outstanding organizations of the school and lends its efforts in an expressive way for the many and varied programs which are calendared each year.

This year the annual concert included Alma Milstead, National Broadcasting star and soloist, Broadway Tabernacle Church; Paul Cartwright, 'celloist of the National Symphony and the Richmond Symphony, and Luther A. Richman, tenor, State Director of Music in Virginia.

The purpose of the Choral Club is to act as a medium of preparation for part singing, eventually leading to membership in the College Choir. It also promotes and fosters the singing of hymns as an aid to chapel service. Membership in the Choral Club is largely drawn from the Freshman and Sophomore classes.

The orchestra aims high in having as its purpose "To perfect music, the greatest of the arts." One of our most prized possessions is the orchestra, which cooperates with the Dramatic Club, and all other social and religious organizations. Probably the girls in the orchestra are most vividly remembered for their outstanding performances at Founder's Day and Commencement, when they play classical and semi-classical music.

This year Beta Pi Theta sponsored the annual French-Spanish Bazaar. On February 15 Miss Coulling's art room was gayly decorated with valentines which we surprisingly discovered bore intriguing salutations in languages not our own. Our money was changed as we entered for that of France and Spain, and all purchases were made through this foreign exchange. In addition to valentines there were handkerchiefs, bonbons, bibelots, and dolls in French and Spanish costumes for sale. Old France and Spain seemed to return to us for a moment as we looked at the bright costumes around us and listened to the singing of the old folk songs. We went to a sidewalk cafe of the Rue de la Paix where sandwiches, tea, and hot chocolate were served. After an entertaining guignol show, we found that the afternoon had flown. Reluctantly we had our money changed to good American coins and found ourselves back in S. T. C. with memories of a pleasant afternoon.

The particular business and object for which this fraternity was formed is the fostering of love of the classics, the inculcating of the ideals of scholarship, and the promotion of training for teachers in Latin.

In order to aid in the accomplishment of these aims, Sigma Pi Rho with the help of Sodalitas Latina presents three times yearly a publication, The Tributum, containing articles of especial interest to lovers of the classics.

It is the purpose of the Virginia Gamma Chapter of Pi Gamma Mu to recognize those students who have shown outstanding ability and interest in Social Science, to instill in their minds a scientific attitude toward all social questions, and to build up an interest for further work in science.

Our annual Mardi Gras is also sponsored by Pi Gamma Mu. Lovely ladies in swishing Spanish skirts and lacy mantillas make up the court. Costumes of all descriptions made a medley of color, and the affair is one of gaiety, music, laughing faces, and dancing feet.

It's here!! It really is!!! What??? Why basketball season! "Remember that game last year between Harrisonburg and Farmville?? That really was a swell game, and we must work hard and beat them this year." Such things were whispered around in the locker rooms as girls dressed for basketball practice. Girls who were determined to make S. T. C.'s team the best ever. It was such girls that made up S. T. C.'s varsity squad. They elected as their captain Frances Hudgins, who has played four years on the team. Then basketball season began with games between such

Archery Season, 1936-'37

MAXINE BURKS.....Manager

CASSIE COLEMAN.....Assistant Manager

Whiz, bang—here an arrow, and there an arrow. In fact, you will find them almost everywhere—near the athletic field. Robin Hood would never stand a chance among the fair damsels who participate in that outstanding game of “hitting the spot.” Maxine Burks, manager of archery, has done a great deal to promote interest in archery, and she has proved very successful. The Freshmen are especially fond of the game, and with all the upperclassmen, the A. A. field is quite crowded on the days when archery practices are held. Another of our girls, Ruth Phelps, “knows how it’s done,” and has acquired that certain thing that causes her to hit the spot every time.

We advise a game of archery to help mend the “love-torn heart.” After all, we do like to think we are tops, and in this little game we can hit without being hit back, if we know how it’s done!

Maxine is ready to make cupids out of all of S. T. C.’s fair maidens, so let’s all get going—On to the A. A. field—It’s the day for archery practice!!!!

The Farmville Quarterly Review was established on this campus in the spring of 1936. In the fall of 1936, subscriptions to the magazine became a part of the campus fees of this college, thus placing a copy of the publication in the hands of each student three times a year.

The purpose of the Quarterly Review is to encourage creative writing among students and to keep the school conscious of the literary accomplishments of graduate members.

The Association of Childhood Education is a national organization composed of nursery-school, kindergarten, and primary teachers, and others who are interested in the education of young children. It concerns itself with the conservation of child life through a better understanding of children and through providing all possible opportunities for their development—physically, intellectually, emotionally, socially, and morally.

Seated: Upshur.

Moonlight and ecstasy mingled with sequins and old gold mean Fall Cotillion. Those who have never been to one of these affairs, await the fall dance with eager anticipation; while those who have previously enjoyed the fun hope to recapture some of the joy that stands out in their memory from the years past, as it is our formal opening dance. This is one occasion that, if the roll were called, all would be present. This year the University of Virginia Cavaliers furnished the season's latest "swing" music, and as the dance fell on Hallowe'en—there was really quite a celebration.

Both the Cotillion Club dances are the most formal Farmville has, and it's usually a "special" date that gets asked to these.

In the spring it's stardust—hyacinth blue, filmy chiffon, and corsages of fragile spring flowers, while that happy carefree feeling that somehow fills the air in spring pervades the atmosphere. There's a touch of sadness here as the seniors, for the last time, march in the figure. But this sadness sweetens our memories, and the many smiles, shining eyes, and light hearts make the all-too-short hours swiftly pass.

The Student Standards Committee serves as a connecting link between the student body, faculty, and home department. It brings about a spirit of friendly cooperation in the solution of many problems, which really seemed so serious until taken over by this committee. It also encourages the highest standards of action and scholarship.

The committee is composed of quite prominent people, including the heads of all major organizations, five members of the faculty appointed by Dr. Jarman, and two representatives from each class.

It is quite fundamental in our school life, and we just couldn't do without it.

Beauty, originality, and culture bring to our minds Gamma Psi. Its three-fold purpose is to encourage work in all phases of art, to furnish a forum for the discussion of all matters pertaining to art, and to honor artistic ability in the school.

Evidence of Gamma Psi's work is seen everywhere on our campus—gay posters on our bulletin boards, attractive place cards at banquets, and colorful decorations which transform our cold, bleak gymnasium into quite a warm and an enchanting dance floor. Then, too, when we receive those gifts of rings, book-ends, and silver pins, or when we walk into a room which displays pastel drawings, clay animals, and leather work, our guesses are not wrong when we say "Gamma Psi."

Long, sleepless nights of work and worry, distracting days of more work and with it all lots of play and fun untold—all this, and more that words cannot express, rolled into one volume brings to you this book—your VIRGINIAN of 1937. We scratched our heads and changed our minds many, many times—till one fleeting thought, caught by the wing, gave us our inspiration—the beginning! Then followed those long nights and busy days over which we constantly found pleasure in griping—and others griped with us when we snatched them at inopportune moments—from meals, classes, sleep—to smile at the camera. There came times that tried the most patient, but we say “pleasure in griping,” for the thrill of the work must remain unknown to an outsider.

Staff

As loose ends were gathered together and our work began to take more definite shape, a feeling of excitement, mixed with sadness at the thought of ending our struggles together, crept upon us. With more time for play, our first real celebration was an Easter party. Remember all those baskets of eggs and Mr. Mac's bunny rabbit??

As we insert the final page, we're wondering if this will suit your fancy. If it bores you, pity all our futile efforts. But if you like it, our dreams have been realized. We leave you to delve into all our secrets!

Tennis Season, 1936-'37

ELSIE CABELL.....Manager

RUTH SEARS.....Assistant Manager

Tennis season started off with the promise of one of those exciting singles tournament. This caused much interest and enthusiasm to burst forth from our tennis lovers. The courts were crowded every afternoon with girls who were practicing in order to be able to gain the trophy—to be the winner! Official practices were held every Friday afternoon under the supervision of Elsie Cabell. Time passed and the tournament was played off, with those raring, ready Butterworth twins fighting through to the finals. The last match between that “sister team” was a sight to behold. The balls were whizzed by so fast that they were hardly visible. At first the games were tied and had to be played again. The last time “Army” Butterworth came forth the victor and winner of the singles trophy!

The purpose of the Monogram Club is to recognize athletic ability, scholarship, and sportsmanship. Membership in the club not only fosters a well-rounded participation in athletics, but carries with it recognition of high ideals of honor, duty, and service. Sportsmanship is required in athletics and all other phases of college life. Points for membership are gained by passing physical efficiency tests, going on hikes, and participating in sports of all kinds.

May Day of 1937 centered around the old German folk tale, Hansel and Gretel. The dance drama took place before a fantastic house in which lives a cruel witch who has changed many innocent people into inanimate objects. Two peasant children, Hansel and Gretel, are put to sleep by Dreams near the witch's sugar-coated house. When they awaken, they see the house and are lured by the crafty witch. The children are able to overcome the power of the witch. Thus they free all the unfortunate souls who have been under her spell.

Candy sticks, gingerbread men, and a beautiful princess with all her maidens are released from the witch's magic. The princess is crowned before the delighted eyes of a gathering of village children, who dance folk dances in her honor.

Minnie Smith played the part of the princess and reigned over the celebration. Zaida Thomas played the part of her maid of honor. In the queen's court were: Bonnie Lane, Mary Bowles, Jennie Belle Gilliam, Chic Dortch, Susan Lane, Page Nottingham, Isabel Plummer, Madeline McGlothlin, Carter Belle Munt, Virginia Carroll, Bess McGlothlin, Elizabeth Butler, Virginia Doughty, Vera Ebel, Elizabeth Morris, Dorothy Wise, Martha Hamlet, Gwen Bell, Lloyd Kelly, Elizabeth Harris, Mary Harrison Vaughan, Elsie Dodd, Berniece Jones, and Esther Beebe.

VIRGINIA LEE ACWORTH

Birds Nest, Virginia

MARY FRANCES ADAMS

Danville, Virginia

VIRGINIA ACWORTH: Delta Theta Alpha; Pi Gamma Mu; Alpha Phi Sigma; Le Cercle Français; Sodalitas Latina; Tributum, Business Manager.

The black-haired girl with the steady, grey eyes—there she is leading the program at Epworth League. Quiet and unassuming, Virginia has a fine quality that is an inspiration to all who know her. With that calm determination, a word and a smile for everyone, she has unconsciously made many a person a little bit happier. Everything she does is finished with a real finish, typically "Virginian."

MARY FRANCES ADAMS: Transfer from Averett College; Mathematics Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Since Mary Frances has been with us for only two years, possibly we all don't know her as well as we do most of the "grads," but those who are close to her value her friendship. She is forever smiling—a good natured person with a friendly greeting ready—humorous and amusing in a manner all her own. Talkative, yes—lazy, a trifle—but who isn't? She is a girl who doesn't believe in too much studying or work—you know how it is! But under it all there's a good, kind heart.

VIRGINIA BAKER: Gamma Theta; Alpha Kappa Gamma; Beore Eh Thorn; VIRGINIAN Staff: Assistant Editor, 3, Editor, 4; Class Treasurer, 3, 4; Senior Chaperon; Student Standards Committee, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Sing Committee, 3; Cotillion Club; Chi; Athletic Association.

There's just one thing we'd like to know about Baker, and that's how she's gotten away with being late to classes, lo, these four years. "Big Bake" can see a joke while it's still around the corner, but her delightful giggle and smiling eyes are warmed by a deep sincerity. Baker's not a person you will ever confuse with any other, for her personality is distinct and belongs just to her, and "it's nice to be natural, if you are naturally nice."

SUE BAYNARD: Orchestra; Le Cercle Français; Sodalitas Latina; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

The seniors will never forget Sue's willingness to help out in productions and "Sings"—for she can really play a violin! Sue is a good student, and one who prepares her work consistently and well. She exemplifies the qualities of a lady with her courtesy and consideration of those about her. Unlike a person of many words who may be saying all she knows, Sue is a person of few words; she gives the impression that there are hidden reserves held for a purpose.

HELEN VIRGINIA BEAN
South Hill, Virginia

JANICE MARIE BLAND
Norfolk, Virginia

MARY VIRGINIA BLANKENSHIP
Richmond, Virginia

MARY ALICE BOGGS
Island, Virginia

VIRGINIA BEAN: Sigma Sigma Sigma; Pi Gamma Mu; Kappa Delta Pi; Alpha Kappa Gamma; Beore Eh Thorn; Rotunda Staff: Reporter, 1, 2, 3, Editor, 4; Class Vice-President, 3; Dramatic Club; Orchesis; Cotillion Club; Association of Childhood Education; Senior Chaperon; Student Standards Committee; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Valedictorian, 4.

Virginia has a rare gift of combining pleasure and work, as well as a fine uprightness of character and conscientiousness regarding her responsibilities. Although she has many interests, she is never too busy to speak a kind word or offer a helping hand. Virginia is a very versatile person, one whose opinion and help will be missed greatly in the varied organizations of S. T. C. next year.

MARY VIRGINIA BLANKENSHIP: Athletic Association; Class Basketball Team, 3; Choral Club, 3; Mathematics Club; Y. W. C. A.

Mary Virginia came to us her junior year from William and Mary in Richmond. It didn't take her long to get into the spirit of things, and she played on her class basketball team the same year. She is slightly sarcastic and readily makes remarks about anything which strikes her as odd. Mary Virginia usually sees a funny side to all matters, in classes and out. It's nice to be able to say of her that she honestly studies and never neglects the real purpose for which she came to school.

JANICE BLAND: Kappa Delta Pi; Beore Eh Thorn; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Those of us who have known Janice this year have enjoyed her friendship and felt it a privilege to have her a member of our class, though it has been for so short a time. Coming back for degree work, she has entered into our college life and, because of high scholastic attainments, has been invited to active membership in various honorary societies. Her warm sincerity and friendliness have enriched our year, and graduation will not erase the memory of these qualities.

MARY ALICE BOGGS: Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

Do you ever see Alice just playing her time away? Do you ever see her in Shannon's hangout? Why, definitely, no! Well, not often, anyhow. She's so much more conscientious than many of us lazy ones that though we do not find her taking a very active part in extra-curricular life in the college, her class-work is always done and done well. Many of us, no doubt, could learn profitable lessons from her. Remember her in Miss Tucker's freshman history class? And now she's a teacher of history herself—a good one, we know.

ALMA ELIZABETH BOOTH
Portsmouth, Virginia

LEWIS CASSIE BOSWELL
Burkeville, Virginia

MARY ELIZABETH BOWLES
Petersburg, Virginia

LELIA ELIZABETH BOYLAN
Portsmouth, Virginia

ELIZABETH BOOTH: Delta Theta Alpha; Dramatic Club; Campus League, 2, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Freshman Commission, 1; Church Cooperative Committee, 3; Athletic Association.

Rather quietly and unassumingly Elizabeth has moved through her four years at Farmville. Conscientious and very studious, she succeeds in whatever she undertakes, always ready to help where help is needed. We shall best remember Elizabeth back stage and as head of the property group of the Dramatic Club. To this organization she has made herself invaluable.

CASSIE BOSWELL: Alpha Sigma Tau; Dramatic Club; College Choir; H₂O Club; Y. W. C. A.; Publicity Committee; Athletic Association.

To those who don't know Cassie very well, let us say that behind that warm smile, with which she greets everyone, is a mighty warm heart. Though she may appear to be very quiet, her friendliness and easy conversation on first acquaintance disperse any doubt we may have felt, and we feel that she is an old friend. And if you want to see a real little swimmer—one who will take all honors—just watch Cassie in a few of those swimming meets that we have.

MARY BOWLES: Sigma Sigma Sigma; Alpha Kappa Gamma; Athletic Association; Treasurer, 2, 3; Hockey Manager, 4; Class Secretary, 1, 2; President, 3, 4; Pan-Hellenic Association, 3, 4; May Court, 1, 2, 3, 4; Mardi Gras Court, 3, 4; Dramatic Club; Orchestis; Cotillion Club; Monogram Club; Association of Childhood Education; Y. W. C. A.; Chi.

Mary is such a little girl, we wonder how she could fill such a big place in our hearts—but she's the darling of the senior class, the pride of the student body, and the toast of Hampden-Sydney. There are few who can lighten our burdens as easily as Mary and none who can, with such a mischievous grin, make us feel that "this is why we came to college!"

ELIZABETH BOYLAN: Portsmouth Club; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

Betty has been our star tap dancer at all class functions for the past three years—productions, sings, and any other capers that we happened to cut. Always patient in helping the rest of us learn, she has made the song and dance numbers possible through her double-duty efforts—composing and teaching. Her quick wit, just satirical enough—and not too much—will bring a hearty laugh from us every time. And for such a little girl, we all know she has a mighty big mind—it's smart, she is!

EMILY LYLE BRUMFIELD
Farmville, Virginia

SARA ELIZABETH BUCHANAN
Tazewell, Virginia

ETHEL MAXINE BURKS
Amherst, Virginia

ELSIE FRANCES CABELL
Wilmington, Delaware

EMILY BRUMFIELD: Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Because Emily lives in town, some of us may not know her as well as we would like to, but those of us who do know her well, all agree that she's simply "swell." Outwardly she's quiet and demure; but when there's fun going on, Emily can be found right in the midst of it. Her genial nature and cheery disposition have brought her many friends, and we'll long remember this pretty gal with soft blond curls.

MAXINE BURKS: Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association: Manager of Archery, 2, 3, 4; Choral Club; Association of Childhood Education.

Archery was Maxine's choice among the forms of athletics, and she has mastered this art to a very great extent. She has won for herself an outstanding place as an archer. But Maxine also has other accomplishments, among them that of making friends. Always happy, she has a way of making people like her. Jolly, laughing, and careless, she makes a pleasant companion. Maxine is the type who puts her best into everything she undertakes.

SARA BUCHANAN: Transfer from Mary Baldwin College; Gamma Theta; Sigma Pi Rho; Beore Eh Thorn; Alpha Phi Sigma; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Sodalitas Latina; Cotillion Club.

Sara is really different from most girls. But by all means don't tell her you think so, because in spite of the fact that you might consider it an admirable trait, she doesn't like it. She's really funny—not "funny peculiar," but just plain "funny ha-ha." She brought to us a genuinely new kind of wit. She came to us two years ago from Mary Baldwin College, and it didn't take her long to get right into the spirit of the things around her.

ELSIE CABELL: Alpha Sigma Alpha; Kappa Delta Pi; Beore Eh Thorn; Alpha Phi Sigma; Athletic Association; Varsity Tennis Team, 1, 2, 3, Assistant Manager of Tennis, 2, Manager, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Social Committee, 4; Rotunda Staff; Circulation Manager, 2, Assistant Business Manager, 3, Business Manager, 4; Choral Club; Le Cercle Français; El Círculo Español; President, 3; Cotillion Club.

Some of us discovered while in Louisville that Elsie's just an "old-fashioned" girl at heart. However, she likes and does a number of modern things most capably—bridge, tennis, philosophy! Sleep comes second to nothing with her except maybe food. Oh, well, what is life without them? Elsie gives the appearance of a thoroughbred to all who see her, but more than that she really is one—to those who know her.

MARGARET IRENE CARROLL
Portsmouth, Virginia

IDA SUE CARTER
Cumberland, Virginia

EMILY WHITLEY CHANNELL
Smithfield, Virginia

SARAH FRANCES CHANNELL
Smithfield, Virginia

MARGARET CARROLL: Alpha Sigma Tau; Beta Pi Theta; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Chairman Prayers Committee, 4; House Council; Hall President, 4; Dramatic Club; Cotillion Club; Pan-Hellenic Council, 4; Senior Chaperon.

Margaret is one of those rare individuals who possess one of the greatest qualities conducive to ultimate and complete success—diligent application to all her tasks, whether great or small. She readily fulfills all duties and is trustworthy and dependable. Having a warm and friendly nature towards everyone, Margaret has made a lasting and firm circle of friends during her years here. We are genuinely sorry that she must leave us.

EMILY CHANNELL: Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Rotunda Staff; Reporter, 4; Dramatic Club; College Choir; Choral Club; Secretary, 4; Granddaughters' Club; Association of Childhood Education.

The other twin!—Oh, of course, and it's Emily, with her quick smile and ready wit. Well, stick around, and we'll have some fun. She's good at reporting the news, and the Rotunda Staff thinks so, too. The only catch in having Emily with us is that we're going to miss her, when, like a haunting little tune, she slips out of our college days here to pop up in our memories for years to come.

IDA SUE CARTER: Alpha Phi Sigma; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Monogram Club.

Perhaps one of Ida Sue's greatest assets is her ability to make and keep friends. She is always ready to help in any difficulty. She briskly goes about her work with a strong quiet determination. A twinkle in her blue eyes lightens the seriousness of her will. She's one of those people who say they will do things—and then do them. Her best friends will tell you that there's a word which suits her—"loyalty."

FRANCES CHANNELL: Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Dramatic Club; Choral Club; College Choir; Granddaughters' Club.

Frances has devoted a good deal of her time to music—but not all of it: her frequent visits to one of Virginia's male institutes of learning prove this. A very friendly person, she always has time to stop to chat. Her supply of energy is unlimited in work and in play. With a spirit of cooperation, Frances is ready to help when there's work to be done. A genial nature makes her an easy person to get along with.

MARY CHAPPELL: Association of Childhood Education; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Mary is one of our "town girls" who are not often seen around the campus in idle hours. But she most definitely believes that "the early bird catches the worm," for she is always the first to be in her place with a smile and a friendly greeting for everyone. Her alert expression and sweet manner challenge us to wonder at our own ways and learn from hers.

RUTH CRUMLEY: Transfer from Virginia Intermont College; Pi Kappa Sigma; Kappa Delta Pi; Pi Gamma Mu; Dramatic Club; Home Economics Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Ruth is one of those rare persons who always know what they are talking about. Determination, studiousness, capability, friendliness, and gaiety balance the scales of her personality. Her good standing with all her teachers, which we all envy very much, is due to those fine characteristics. We regret to say "Adios" to so loving a playmate, so true a friend, and such a willing and capable worker.

VIRGINIA COLEMAN: Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

Virginia lives in Crewe, which is only thirty miles away, and during her four years she has driven to school each morning. For this reason she is not as well-known by the student body as she might be, but to those who do know her Virginia is an interesting type. She's very fickle, and often changes her mind about people and clothes—in short, she uses her woman's privilege to a great degree. Virginia has a capacity for learning, too—when it strikes her fancy.

MARTHA GLENN DAVIS: Gamma Theta; Pi Gamma Mu; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Secretary, 2; Cotillion Club; Campus League; Student Standards Committee, 1.

A perfect lady possessing modesty, refinement, and a flair for making friends—that's Martha Glenn. "A thing worth doing is worth doing well" is her motto. Martha Glenn is both capable and conscientious. If ever there's something to be done, she's always willing to help in every possible way. One thing we'll always remember about her—she loves to sleep—except during her week-ends at home. We just can't imagine what it is about that old Richmond atmosphere that's so different.

MILDRED DAVIS: Alpha Sigma Alpha; Granddaughters' Club; Association of Childhood Education; Cotillion Club; College Choir, 4; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

Midge is a minx, plain and simple. She'll never outgrow some of her childhood fancies, but this only makes her dearer in our hearts. Her suite mates will never forget having to bend from their lofty dignity to play Peter Pan, because Midge was taking Juvenile Literature, and someone had to act the part. The main trouble with Midge is she always has the "cleaning-up bug." Nevertheless, we'll remember laughter, good times, and Midge, simultaneously.

CHIC DORTCH: Sigma Sigma Sigma; Pi Gamma Mu; President, 4; Kappa Delta Pi; Alpha Kappa Gamma; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Rotunda Staff, 4; Dramatic Club; Class Giftorian, 2; Artist's Dance Group, 4; Cotillion Club; Association of Childhood Education; President, 3; Pan-Hellenic Council, 3; Secretary, 4; Mardi Gras Court, 3; May Court, 3, 4.

Rosy-cheeked and merry-eyed, and don't forget the dimples! Yes, sir! When Mother Nature came to Chic, she was generous in a big way, for she handed out both good looks and intelligence galore. So don't let that "little girl" look of Chic's fool you. She has what it takes and is equally at home in a fast game of basketball or dancing to the sweet music of an orchestra.

MARY DENNY: Granddaughters' Club; Association of Childhood Education; Athletic Association; Class Volley Ball Team, 1; Y. W. C. A.; Alumnae and Membership Committee.

Mary's laughing blue eyes and cherry smile have helped to brighten our days. Her true Southern charm and readiness for any occasion, for fun or otherwise, have made a warm place for her in our hearts. Every girl in school envies Mary her gift of gab as well as her happy-go-lucky and nonchalant ways. When she left us at Christmas, she took with her an individuality that no one of us can replace—our efforts would prove themselves only poor imitations, for who else could talk so delightfully fast and so entertainingly?

RUTH DUNNINGTON: Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Until you've really known Ruth and talked to her when she's in the mood for it, you've missed,—oh, my what you've missed! Those of us who do know her are sorry for those who don't. When you're worn out with things and feel as though the undertow of life has got you in its clutches, try variety in the form of Ruth. It works, and in no time you'll feel better. This is not a doctor's prescription or anything like that. We're just telling you.

Whether at the table, in the classroom or in a bull session, Claire's presence promises delightful entertainment. With her irresistible brand of chatter, it is usually a recital of one of her seemingly ever-present troubles that keeps us in laughter. Claire has been a very valued part of our Student Body, upholding its standards to the fullest with her fine cooperative spirit.

KATHRYN FITZGERALD: Gamma Theta; Choral Club, 2; College Choir, 4; Cotillion Club; Association of Childhood Education; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Kitty Fitz's major is Primary Education, but we think she minors in devilment. If, in the midst of a class, you find yourself smothering a giggle, she has probably whispered something apropos into your ear or pulled your hair. Her spontaneity and enthusiastic frankness delight us, but never do these overshadow her thoughtfulness in doing things for others. Her coinage of unique expressions and words has widened our vocabulary into realms before unknown.

ALICE ELDER: Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Association of Childhood Education.

Quietly Alice has moved through the four years of her college life, much loved by the few who have been fortunate to know her intimately. She has done her work carefully and thoroughly, pulling her marks higher and higher by the dint of hard work. Regardless of how busy she might be, Alice will always find time for a friendly chat, or for the problems presented to her by her friends. Her sound advice makes great obstacles seem small. Thinking of Alice, we shall remember her unselfish devotion and sympathetic understanding.

ANN GALUSHA: Gamma Theta; Pi Gamma Mu; Cotillion Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

If the task were to write in proportion to the amount Ann talks, the job would be done already. To this, however, we might add those exceptional times when she gets on a good spree of subtle witticisms, that liven up the conversation. As Ann has lived in town these past four years, she has missed our fun in some delightful prank late, late at night, but she's never failed to glean a glorified and exaggerated account first thing the next morning.

FRANCES MERWYN GATHRIGHT

ELLA VICTORIA GILLETTE

HELEN ELIZABETH GLASS
Farmville, Virginia

MARTHA VIRGINIA GWALTNEY

MERWYN GATHRIGHT: Alpha Sigma Tau; Gamma Psi; Student Council; Representative, 2; Y. W. C. A.; Committee Member, 2; Publicity Chairman, 3, 4; Dramatic Club; Cotillion Club; Pan-Hellenic Association, 2; Athletic Association.

Have you ever watched Merwyn down in the art room, when she's sitting with the pencil in her hand just waiting for the mood to drift around? Then you've had a glimpse of her character, which includes a big helping of the dreamy element and a real friendliness. Remember the poems and pictures on the bulletin board that you enjoyed this year? Merwyn's responsible for them. She's been a valuable aid in many things, for she's always ready to help out.

HELEN GLASS: Beore Eh Thorn; Dramatic Club; Orchesis; College Choir; Y. W. C. A.; Town Girls' Committee, 2, 3; Chairman, 4; Athletic Association.

Helen is a "town girl," but this doesn't keep her from being vitally interested in many phases of college life. Chiefly, Orchesis and the College Choir boast of her abilities, for with these two groups she has worked with tireless efforts. She's just a little girl, but she has a knack of getting whatever she goes after—and she's always on tiptoe in classes and ready with all the answers!

VICTORIA GILLETTE: Sigma Sigma Sigma; Kappa Delta Pi; President, 4; Pi Kappa Delta; Alpha Kappa Gamma; Alpha Phi Sigma; House Council; Hall President, 2; Dramatic Club; Mathematics Club; Granddaughters' Club; President, 3; Cotillion Club; Debate Club; Campus League, 1; Chapel Committee, Chairman, 3; Class Historian, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Membership and Alumnae Committee, 2; Athletic Association; Varsity Basketball Squad, 1.

"Tory" left us in March, and we have missed her bright face in the halls. She was always in a state of excitement—sometimes it was joy and sometimes trouble—but we never saw her sit calmly in a corner and just chat idly. She's always full of life, and her gay remarks have been a welcome refuge more than once.

MARTHA GWALTNEY: Gamma Psi; Dramatic Club; Association of Childhood Education; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Martha is quite the artist—not only when it comes to drawing, but also in the management of children. She's got a disposition they love, and her originality is unsurpassed. We marvel at her quietness and the ease with which she accomplishes difficult tasks. Her generosity cannot be overlooked, and we admire such spirit. It's nice to ask Martha to help with anything, for we know she can always be depended upon to do the work thoroughly.

MARY REEVES HALE: Transfer from Harrisonburg S. T. C.; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Dramatic Club.

Mary is a willing worker, and she likes to do things well. She's a bit quiet and is not well-known by some of us; those of us that know her realize that under that quietness is the warm heart of a true friend. We admire her patience and determination. These things help her to do her work efficiently, and likewise they will make her life a successful one. We wish for her the very best of everything!

MARTHA HAMLET: Mu Omega; Alpha Kappa Gamma; Kappa Delta Pi; Alpha Phi Sigma; House Council: President, 4; Student Council: Treasurer, 3, Ex-Officio, 4; Y. W. C. A.: Service Committee, 2, Social Committee, 3; Athletic Association; Dramatic Club; Cotillion Club; Debate Club; Farmville Quarterly Review Staff: Business Manager, 3; Student Standards Committee; Senior Chaperon; May Court, 4.

Knock! Knock!—Who's there? Why, it's Martha, and we're all in the dark, as she tiptoes on her way down the hall. Characterized by a bright smile and a jovial nature, as well as upright honesty and strong ambition, she can nevertheless "bull" with the best of us until the wee small hours—when the rest of the House Council is sleeping!

VIRGINIA HANNAH: Pi Gamma Mu; Kappa Delta Pi; Alpha Phi Sigma; House Council: Hall President, 3, House President, 4; Rotunda Staff: Editorial Editor, 4; Mathematics Club, 1, 2; Athletic Association.

If you are puzzled, or in a heated argument about some question of international relationship, just see Virginia. She will clear up the matter, for she knows all about the subject. A clear mind and a will of determination are hers. So when Virginia takes over a job, we all rest assured that it will be well done. By the way, Virginia, we wonder if that fortune teller was right!

LELIA HILL: Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Prayers Committee; Dramatic Club.

Hats off to Lelia! Gay, full of pep, and altogether charming, she's one of the world's best. We're going to miss her terribly next year, but we know that wherever she goes, she'll be heading for success. And she'll find it. We do hope that she'll be somewhere she can coach a basketball team, for after her practice teaching, we're thoroughly convinced of her ability. Keep that lively spirit that shone this fall on your rides in the "Chevy," Lelia. It's bound to bring good luck.

SARA FRANCES HUDGINS

Farmville, Virginia

KATHERINE CARR HURT

Salem, Virginia

ZELL HOPKINS: College Choir; Cotillion Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Zell is one of our playgirls. She hails from West Virginia and she's floated through these four years with the greatest of glee. There have been few tricks she hasn't tried and here's to one who knows how to keep "quiet." The poor dear is afraid of the dark, however, and she won't ever stay in her room alone! For the past two years Zell has walked around with that far-away look in her eyes—it must be "Love in Bloom"!

FRANCES HUDGINS: Sigma Sigma Sigma; Orchestras; Cotillion Club; Association of Childhood Education; H₂O Club; Student Standards Committee, 1; Student Council; Ex Officio, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Secretary, 3; President, 4; Varsity Basketball Team, 2, 3, 1.

Although Hudgins is one of our "town girls," she has made it a point to be with us often. With plenty of speed and a knack for shooting goals, she has helped to chalk up a record for our Alma Mater. Whether remarkably keeping down the opponent's score in a basketball game or dashing off to Lexington for the week-end, Hudgins is always the same—vivacious and fun-loving.

EVELYNE HOWELL: Delta Theta Alpha; Dramatic Club; Y. W. C. A.; College Choir; Choral Club; Athletic Association; Class Volley Ball Team, 1, 2.

Big blue eyes, a slight figure, a happy smile, and a cheery "hello"—that's Evelyn. Although she majored in history, she'll probably never use it because she gets that "letter" every night. Those who are her friends are fortunate indeed and will be very likely to have their hair arranged in perfect waves—thanks to Evelyn's artistic fingers. We shall all miss her greatly next year.

KATHERINE HURT: Mu Omega; Pi Gamma Mu; Kappa Delta Pi; Dramatic Club, 1, 2, 3; Le Cercle Français, 1; Chi; Mathematics Club, 1, 2; Cotillion Club; Campus League, 1; Y. W. C. A.; Freshman Commission; Athletic Association.

If you ever want to know anything about the elements, just ask "Hippy"—she knows all the answers! There is going to be an empty place in our hearts and along the halls next year without "Hippy's" bright smile and cherry "Hello" to brighten the days. We even wonder how there can be a Dean's List without her. Maybe we, too, had better start running our fingers through our hair when we are "trying to concentrate!"

JUDITH ROBINSON JEFFRIES

LOIS ARCHER JENKINS

Powhatan, Virginia

DOROTHY HUTCHESON: Athletic Association; Association of Childhood Education; Y. W. C. A.

Slight of stature, dark of hair, charming with big blue eyes—that's Dot. She hails from the home town of Washington and Lee. Could that account for her many week-ends spent away from school? Dot is as generous as they make 'em, and she does things for people with such a willing spirit that it's a pleasure to ask her for help. She really has a keen sense of humor, and this quality makes her the "good listener" that she is.

KATHERINE IRBY: Sigma Sigma Sigma; Athletic Association; Manager of Hockey, 3; Y. W. C. A.; Town Girls' Committee, 3; Dramatic Club; Orchesis; President, 4; Cotillion Club; Monogram Club; Treasurer, 4; May Day Committee; Chairman of Dance, 4.

Watch that blond tear across the hockey field! A gallant heart, a smooth, straightforward mind, and a briskness that gets things done—here's an athlete who plays a good game and offers a friendly handshake and a quick grin when it's over. Irby is like that in everything, and so, she's always a winner, even when she loses—which isn't often. We're counting on you all along the line, Irby, and victory you'll surely win!

JUDITH JEFFRIES: Transfer from Fredericksburg State Teachers College; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Is there one among us who doesn't wish that she had known Judith longer than this one short year? If there is, just point her out. I think plain "old teched" is the term you'd use. Quiet and calm, it didn't take us long to know that she is one of the finest of all the fines we know. We wonder what they've done at Fredericksburg without her. Well, all we can say about it is—"Lucky us!"

LOIS JENKINS: Y. W. C. A.; Choral Club; Athletic Association.

She's that little brunette, with dark, shining eyes, who moves about among us in her quiet way, but is ever observant of those around her. Those alert expressions tell us that, though she says little, there are many thoughts whirling through her mind, and only those more intimate friends may fathom these thoughts. Lois is a capable girl—one who you may be sure will always come out on top through sheer grit and determination to overcome difficulties.

LLOYD KELLY

Big Stone Gap, Virginia

MARGARET JENNINGS: Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; College Choir.

Margaret made her initial entrance into S. T. C. with the same air of nonchalance that has stayed with her throughout her four years. Nothing that anyone has said nor any obstacles which have blazed her path phased her for a moment. We haven't seen much of her in her senior year since she works diligently during the week in the chemistry lab, and every weekend she picks up her little suitcase and trots away. Although Margaret got her M. R. S. last June, she receives her B. S. degree this year.

LOIS JINKINS: Alpha Sigma Tau; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Prayers Committee.

Look at that peach-bloom complexion! And there's enough sugar in her disposition to go with the peaches, too. In short, Lois is a peach, and it gets her where she wants to go. She's the kind of girl whom it's good to be with whether you feel like laughing or crying, for she can last as long as the next one in a chuckling session, or make you feel better about it when you want to weep. We have confidence in Lois, 'cause we know she can manage all the "Terry-ble" things. (Ahem!)

BERNIECE JONES: Pi Kappa Sigma; Rotunda Staff; Reporter, 2, 4; Dramatic Club, 1; College Choir; Choral Club; Cotillion Club; Association of Childhood Education; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Part playgirl, part seriousness, a gay grin ending in a laugh that gets you that way, too, and the result is Berniece. A generous reward is offered to the person who can beg, borrow, or steal Berniece's method in securing the latest dope on her fellow students. A keen observer and a good reporter, she has served on the Rotunda Staff for two years. We shall never forget her fine spirit.

LLOYD KELLY: Sigma Sigma Sigma; Alpha Phi Sigma; Beore Elh Thorn; Kappa Delta Pi; Pi Gamma Mu; Class Treasurer, 1; Cotillion Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

This neat, brown-eyed miss is one of the fairer members of our class. She has been the envy of some of her less lucky sisters with her shower of telegrams, 'phone calls, and specials from members of the opposite sex. 'Tis said she shoots an excellent line of bull on a dance floor. When she isn't eagerly haunting the home office, she's dining in the tea room. Incidentally, Lloyd is intellectual. Why, the gal has everything!

BONNIE LANE: Mu Omega; Alpha Kappa Gamma; Kappa Delta Pi; Beta Pi Theta; Beore Eh Thorn; Alpha Phi Sigma: President, 3; Student Council: Class Representative, 2, Secretary, 3, President, 4; Y. W. C. A.: Social Committee, 1; World Fellowship Committee, 2; Chairman of Sing Committee, 3; Student Standards Committee, 1, 4; Dramatic Club; Le Cercle Français; Cotillion Club; Rotunda Staff: Reporter, 2, 3; Athletic Association: Class Hockey Team, 3, 4; Varsity Hockey Team, 1, 2; May Court, 2, 3, 4.

Who's that coming down the street? Anybody would know—Bonnie Lane. The load on her young shoulders never draws away that sunburst smile. This year her ability and leadership have made her a fine president of the Student Council. Cosmopolitan is the word for Bonnie. Whenever there's work to be done, she's ready—and she doesn't forget the fun!

LOUISE LEWIS: Beore Eh Thorn; Kappa Delta Pi; Pi Gamma Mu; Freshman Commission, 1; Dramatic Club; College Choir; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Probably the only girl among us who holds the distinction of being a welcomed visitor at the "crack of dawn" is Louise, with a bundle of newspapers under her arm! She'll always greet you with a warm friendliness and a quaint air of graciousness. Behind her bright smile lies a keen intellect that is enviable and the strong determination to meet responsibility. She gives her absolute best to whatever the undertaking may be.

VIRGINIA LEONARD: Gamma Theta; Alpha Kappa Gamma: President, 4; Student Council: Class Representative, 3; House Council: Hall President, 2; Secretary, 3; VIRGINIAN Staff: Typist, 2, 3, Circulation Manager, 4; Pan-Hellenic Council, 4; Class Vice-President, 4; Senior Chaperon; Orchesis; Cotillion Club; Y. W. C. A.: Freshman Commission, Chairman, 1; Publicity Committee, 1; World Fellowship Committee, 2; Athletic Association.

To many of us, Virginia is a pillar of strength when things go wrong—a barrel of fun when we feel playful. We will probably remember her best singing "Blue Moon" or "Thrilled," lending her talent to all class functions. Of one possessing a flare for confidential talks far, far into the night, of one whose opinion is highly valued, we say "to know her is a privilege."

MARGARET LONG: Pi Kappa Sigma; Le Cercle Français; Cotillion Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

This is a tough one. We are biographing two people instead of one—a veritable Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde combination. On the one side, Margaret displays a quiet exterior, going about among us in the laziest sort of way. However, on the other hand (and from inside observation), she is known to be the spirit of fun and frolic. Though some may say she's lazy, we'd rather say she's just delightfully unenergetic, for, "mirabile dictu," she really likes teaching!

BESSIE MCGLOTHLIN: Delta Theta Alpha; Alpha Phi Sigma; Kappa Delta Pi; Pi Gamma Mu; Dramatic Club; Monogram Club; Student Council; Freshman Representative, 1; Campus League Chairman, 2; Athletic Association; Manager of Hockey, 2; Class Hockey Team, 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Hockey Squad, 1, 2, 3; Y. W. C. A.; Church Cooperative Committee; Rotunda Staff, 1, 2, 3, 4; Chairman of May Day Committee, 4; May Court, 4; Business Manager of Farmville Quarterly Review.

Truly a woman of affairs is Bess, not only in curricula but in extra-curricula activities, too. Socially, she enjoys dances at the neighboring college for men, and she's definitely no one to sneeze at a good time. Her many-sided interests, conscientious work, power and personality have certainly led to her success in various aspects of college life.

BERNICE MANN: Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Bernice is one of Farmville's products to our class. She goes her way, rather quietly perhaps, but she has shown class spirit by helping in intra-mural games and in any other work she has been called on to participate in. It is quiet, sure girls like Bernice who make the real backbone of a class. She has had a definite part in our class and will not be forgotten.

SUE MALLORY: Mu Omega; Dramatic Club; Cotillion Club; Association of Childhood Education; House Council; Hall President, 2; Y. W. C. A.; Pan-Hellenic Association; President, 3; Representative, 4; Senior Chaperon; Athletic Association.

Sue is a person who enjoys playing and life in general. She is always eager to hear the latest scandal or gossip, and when the light is burning late in Sue's room, we know there's a huge bull session afoot—and who doesn't want to join in? She has a most contagious laugh and helps us to enjoy a joke twice as much as we would ordinarily. We can readily see, by the numerous executive positions which Sue has held, that she has ability unlimited.

GERTRUDE MANNING: Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

Gertrude has gone through her college years quietly and evenly, taking life calmly and weighing the value of it. And because of it, there is within her a depth of quality that is sound and dependable. Maybe that is why those of us who really know her always stop to listen when she voices her opinion. Wherever Gertrude goes, whatever she does, we know that peace, success, and happiness will somehow reach her.

KATHERINE REBECCA MILBY
Berkeley, California

BESSIE CAMPBELL MITCHELL
Epworth, Virginia

INDIA MARTIN: Home Economics Club; Baptist Students' Union, 3, President, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Almost any time you can find India over in the Home Ec lab cooking, sewing, or teaching little boys and girls how to cook or sew, for she is one of our Home Economics majors. One of her most admirable characteristics is the ability to get work done calmly and quickly while the rest of us are still worrying about it. Although she has been with us only two years, being a transfer from another school, India has made many friends among us.

KATHERINE MILBY: Alpha Phi Sigma; Kappa Delta Pi; Sigma Pi Rho; President, 4; Tributum Staff: Business Manager, 2, Associate Editor, 3, Editor, 4; El Circulo Espanol; Sodalitas Latina; Mathematics Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Katherine's inclinations have always been towards foreign languages, but this does not mean that this subject has held her undivided attention. As a teacher, she has been the high school's favorite. To acquire this position many qualities other than intellect are necessary, such as a pleasing sense of humor and sympathetic understanding. Katherine's friends are many, and our Alma Mater is the richer for her having been here.

ELEANOR MEREDITH: House Council, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Now who in the world would know who Eleanor is? Why, very few—but just ask for “Red,” and almost anyone could tell you she is the quiet little girl with that self-determination, by which she has made her way through her college years. Besides having a scientific mind for chemistry, “Red” has a remarkable ability to silence people by a slight tap—to silence them politely, yet completely. Instantaneously, noises cease, and lights go out!

BESSIE MITCHELL: House Council; Hall President, 4; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Le Cercle Français.

Here's hoping you can take all of life's knocks as well as your fists have taken the knocks on our doors during your past year as hall president. Even after hearing you knock every night for a year, Bess, we still think you're swell. In fact, you're very, very. . . . Now that's saying we like you plenty, and we're wishing for you everything that's good, with lots and lots of happiness—(and lights).

MARIE PARKER MOORE

GRACE ALMA OLGERS

MARIE MOORE: Delta Theta Alpha; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; Choral Club, 1; Senior Chaperon; Y. W. C. A.; Campus League, 2; Chapel Committee, 3, 4; Chairman of Student Day Committee, 4; Athletic Association.

Those charming, quick smiles and girlish pink blushes are really and truly genuine. Rightfully does she blush after one of her frequent "breaks." Marie's dependability, determination, and sincerity are the qualities which have made her a sort of "man behind the scenes" person, who gets things done without the crowd cheering her good deeds. She will always live in our memory because of her fine spirit of geniality.

PAGE NOTTINGHAM: Gamma Theta; Cotillion Club; Granddaughters' Club; Association of Childhood Education; Pan-Hellenic Council; Treasurer, 4; May Court, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Page—the very last word in a typical college girl—would be even more of a prom trotter if she really cared for such things. She looks—well, as a girl ought to look. She doesn't take life too seriously, but she lacks nothing in depth. Prominent in bull sessions, a ready fourth at bridge, an excellent dancer—she's the sort of girl who seems to go with Harris tweed coats in the daytime and rich-hued taffeta at night.

LUCILE MOSELEY: Pi Kappa Sigma; Dramatic Club; Cotillion Club; Association of Childhood Education; Pan-Hellenic Association; President, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Senior Chaperon; Athletic Association; Class Secretary, 3, 4.

To some of us conversation means "just talking," but when "Lucy P." makes a remark, we remember it for its spice and wit. How many times in bull session has she put in her jolly expression that has made us think, "I wish I had said that!"

What would the senior class have done without the originality of "Lucy P."? She is that capable person who always gives suggestions for productions and sings. She's delightfully gay and carefree despite that certain air of dignity and poise.

GRACE OLGERS: College Choir, 2, 3, 4; Choral Club, 1; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

Grace is an unusually quiet girl. She does not make a fuss about what she does; instead she goes on unassumingly and does it. Only few of us know her well, but those of us who do, know a stable and dependable sort of person who can never be forgotten. Her application to duty and her determination to finish successfully everything she begins are the elements certain to bring success.

NELLIE WHITE PIERPONT

MARGARET EMMA PITTARD

Buffalo Junction, Virginia

MARION BARCLIFT POND

Norfolk, Virginia

IRENE PARKER: Mathematics Club; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

By some, Irene is considered to be aloof, but that is hardly the right word. She is merely following the old saying "slow but sure." As a juggler of figures and math formulas she is a dead shot. When the rest of us are snowed under with Einstienic Calculations, Irene is in her element. Possibly this is true because she has the ability to sit down and do tedious tasks thoroughly and well. She is rather stubborn, to state it baldly; but stubbornness can be called adherence to principles—so that is nothing against her.

MARGARET PITTARD: Alpha Sigma Tau; Dramatic Club; Cotillion Club; Association of Childhood Education; Pan-Hellenic Council, 3, Vice-President, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

When we're tired of playing bridge or talking about clothes, food, and men, there's nothing like Margaret to start something new or to get us interested all over again. If you're fed up with classes or in a bad humor, but you're too "down" to do anything about it, find Margaret. That girl is another one of those "tonic" persons that could make the sorriest soul in school feel one hundred per cent on the good side.

NELLIE PIERPONT: Sigma Sigma Sigma; Pi Gamma Mu; Mathematics Club; Cotillion Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Nellie is the object of many of the phone calls on second floor Senior Building. She beams over them, reveals nothing and otherwise takes life casually. She's one of those "every hair in place" people, and she'll always get there in her own quiet way. It's rather disconcerting to see Nellie completely oblivious to life's ups and downs, as the rest of us tear our hair. She goes her way calmly, unobtrusively, and with utter self-confidence.

MARION POND: Delta Theta Alpha; Pi Gamma Mu; Y. W. C. A.; Service Committee, 1; Church Cooperative Committee, 2, 3; Cabinet, 4; Dramatic Club; College Choir, Secretary, 4; Choral Club; Mathematics Club; Athletic Association.

Few of us can boast the conscientiousness to duty and the rewarding "joy of a thing well done" that belong to Marion. She's always busying herself with some task—be it storming around on a "make-up" job for the Dramatic Club, with Miss Wheeler behind her, or lending her time and talent to class productions. (Could we ever forget the wooden soldiers of "Life Begins at 8:30"?)

Dot's the kind of girl you can picture in printed taffeta with puffed sleeves; in other words, she's that rare type known as an old-fashioned girl. She's a good worker and seldom tackles anything unless she is sure that it will be done and done well. We admire her self-confidence. She seems to have a way with the teachers, but she never lets us in on her secret. We'll forgive her for that 'cause maybe we're jealous of her intellect, and she definitely has that!

LUCILE RHODES: Mu Omega; Kappa Delta Pi; Pi Gamma Mu; Alpha Phi Sigma; Beore Eh Thorn; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Social Committee, 4; VIRGINIAN Staff; Assistant Literary Editor, 3; Dramatic Club; Mathematics Club; Cotillion Club; Debate Club; Secretary, 4.

'Cile is always full of secrets because she's such a good person in whom to confide. You can air your troubles before her any time, and 'Cile will say a word or smile, and—Lo! life's a cherry pie!

No one enjoys playing pranks on her fellow students any more than 'Cile, and the pranks are usually disastrous to those concerned. She is intellectual though she does "talk" to teachers. She's intensely loyal. And did you ever note the mischievous sparkle in her eye?

MARGARET PRICE: Transfer from William and Mary College; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

With a dash of color and a flare of spirit, a personality at once mysterious and yet irresistible—if we may base our judgment on long distance phone calls and "Specials"—Margaret has easily made a place for herself among us during her short stay of one year here. In any class, she's the "shining light" and the professor's delight at all daily recitations, for she surely knows the subjects. Incidentally, just any time she'll give you pointers on how to "Nail your Man"!

CHARLOTTE RICE: Pi Kappa Sigma; Le Cerele Francais, 1; Cotillion Club; Chi; Pan-Hellenic Council, 4; VIRGINIAN Staff; Assistant Photographic Manager, 2; Photographic Manager, 3; Associate Editor, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Sing Committee, 2; Athletic Association.

Charlotte was born late at night, and she's never quite gotten over it! She sleeps all day to catch up on winks, but she truly accomplishes work in the wee hours of the morning. Completely unemotional, she occasionally dazzles an unsuspecting world with a smile of rare beauty. Loyalty is the keynote of her character—Charlotte is an excellent person to be present at "bull" sessions to ward off would-be murderers of absent parties.

BETTY RIVERS: Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

It's a funny thing. I mean it's a funny thing about the way things happen when Betty's around. When she breezes through the door, troubles go scat! When one of her grins get tossed at you, you're all for forgetting what you don't want to remember. Though Betty is a town girl and has not been thrown so closely with us in our activities here at school, no one who has known her well would give a million dollars for the knowing—well, a thousand any way.

DOROTHY ROBERTSON: Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Alumnae and Membership Committee; Choral Club; Cotillion Club; Association of Childhood Education.

With her hair brushed smooth and shining, her wistful eyes, and tilted nose, Dot is like a little girl who has just been scrubbed to pinkness and put in starched linens. She is always immaculate and dainty. It's fun to visit Dot, because she has such a grand gift of gab and a whole bagful of jokes and funny stories. Keep on, "Miss Simplicity," for you're good for tired spirits.

ANTHELIA ROBINETTE: Dramatic Club; Debate Club; President, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Service Committee, 1; Athletic Association.

Anthelia is one of those pretty girls who are not only pretty, but also smart. With a convincing note in her voice, she has brought many honors to us in debates. Never ready to give up, she sticks it out to the end, and she usually wins, too. A happy and congenial sort of person, Anthelia is always ready to help—one of those people you can really count on.

ANNE SCALES: Pi Gamma Mu; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

During her four years at Farmville, Anne has successfully met all the responsibilities and trials of her college life. In her own quiet way she has conscientiously done her work, and done it well. Anne impresses us as one who, with deepest sincerity, desires to do the worthwhile things in life. Those of us who know her really well have been completely won over by her understanding heart and are her staunch and loyal friends. Indeed the friendship that Anne gives out will give her true friends throughout her life.

"Lizzie" is a little girl, but for what she lacks in stature, she makes up in good humor and cheerfulness. When we think of her, we somehow think of graciousness, culture, the delightfully charming hostess, teacups—and her big, blue eyes. Perhaps Lizzie's greatest asset is her knack for making and keeping friends. Capable, conscientious, and loyal, she may expect nothing but success from the future.

ELIZABETH SMITH: Pi Kappa Sigma; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Dramatic Club, 1; Cotillion Club: President, 4; Association of Childhood Education; Pan-Hellenic Council, 4.

Brown curls, lovely eyes, a soft voice, depth—that's our Smitty. She's a woman to be envied on a dance floor, and she's not bad in her blue cigarette robe. Her main vice being sleeping, you'll find her any afternoon curled up under a green blanket—though we remember her best as "The Sophisticated Lady" of our sophomore year. Some night drop in their room, and you'll be highly entertained by the rare and delightful combination of Lucy P. and Smitty—and you'll always find them eager to hear the latest dope about Chi!

MARY ELIZABETH SLATER: Alpha Sigma Alpha; Beore Eh Thorn; Alpha Kappa Gamma; House Council, 2; Athletic Association: Lacrosse Manager, 1, 2; Manager of Minor Sports, 3; Class Basketball Team, 3; Y. Mary Lib laughed, and we couldn't help ourselves—we had to like her. As she bubbles over with good nature, we marvel at the distinct flavor of her nonsense. If you're looking for Mary Lib, she's sure to be found delving deep into the mysteries of the chemistry lab or in a mad dash to the bank with "Annual money."

FRANCES SMITH: Kappa Delta Pi; Gamma Psi; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

Frances came back to S. T. C. after a few years teaching. And she's a real student!! Why, she's one of the few seniors that can follow Dr. Wynne. She's rather hard to know, but after a few chats with her about this and that (mostly sensible things) you can't help realizing that she's a girl of depth and appreciation. She doesn't seem to mind working hard to reach that goal which she has set for herself. And she's ever-willing to help those of us who have less "gray matter."

Our fair May Queen—that's Minnie. Even after four years at school we still find something almost mysterious and unknown about Minnie that makes her all the more interesting. Most of the time she is a gay, fun-loving soul, but sometimes a distant look appears in her eyes, and we know she has entered a world of her own. Minnie's interests at school have been varied, and her deep-dimpled smile makes interests in Minnie just as varied.

SYLVIA SOMERS: Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; College Choir; Choral Club; Le Cercle Français; El Circulo Espanol; Granddaughters' Club; Debate Club.

Tall, slim, and dark-haired, the lady with the golden voice—that's Sylvia. She loves to sing, and her clear soprano voice is often heard around the campus. She is a valued part of the College Choir and the Choral Club, taking an active part in both. Sylvia's interest in Spanish seems somehow to fit her personality. Always ready to do what the rest wish to do, she is all for having fun. Merry times to you, Sylvia!

ROSE SOMERS: House Council; Hall President, 4; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Dramatic Club; College Choir; Association of Childhood Education; President, 4; Debate Club.

Here's a girl that's just chuck full of ideas, especially when it comes to art. It's fun to swap notions with Rose, because she always has some new ones. Maybe that accounts for the dreamy look in her eyes. They're big and brown. Just you mention the art room to her, and they'll light up and Rose will be right there. A neat worker she is, too, in every job that she undertakes. We always know that the outcome will be "okey-dokey." So is Rose.

DOROTHY SPENCER: Beore Eh Thorn; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

You know, we've got a hunch that there are a lot of good things about Dot which are hidden from some of us. But you can't hold out on us altogether, young lady! We know that, in having you here, we have a prize possession—one that will be greatly missed after graduation time. Smooth riding, Dot! When it comes to success, we know your little car will be trucking right down that road.

Serious minded? Well, not altogether. Just get a phase of the other side. When Zaida is freed from studies, that crazy-girl stuff comes to the fore, and we just laugh and laugh. Zaida's so capable and reliable, too. Isn't it a lovely combination? The place that she has taken during her four years at S. T. C. is going to be worse than blank without her. Say!—We're going to miss you too much, Zaida.

VIRGINIA TILMAN: Pi Kappa Sigma; College Choir; Choral Club; Cotillion Club; Home Economics Club, 1; Y. W. C. A.; Sing Committee, 2; Athletic Association; Dramatic Club.

When the busy, humdrum college life gets you down, and you feel like settling down to a playful afternoon with a good magazine, a comfortable chair, and a radio, pay a visit to Tilman. She has taken an interest in many activities here, but one of her biggest interests in life has been V. P. I., and no prom there is a success without her smiling face and little Juliette cap perched saucily on the back of her head.

AGNES THOMPSON: Alpha Sigma Tau; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Granddaughters' Club.

With that lovable little air and a smile that makes you want to be friends, Agnes has found a warm place in the heart of each of us. Agnes has that sunny kind of quietness that puts one in the most satisfying mood of relaxation. Her way of getting things done makes her a girl that we can always count on. What a loss it is to lose her, but what a find to the big old world!

DOROTHY TURNER: Kappa Delta Pi; Gamma Psi; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Granddaughters' Club.

Dot is one of those girls who drive in to school. That has kept us from seeing as much of her as we'd like. She has vivacity and a certain quality that makes us swear by what she says. As a teacher, it's our bet that she will be the envy of her contemporaries. She has been a gem in the class and we've burdened her with making posters and other things that require that artistic touch.

MARY VIRGINIA WALKER: Dramatic Club, 1, 2; Cotillion Club; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

Mary Virginia is a rather sensitive person, with an artistic temperament. For she is artistic, and we missed her our sophomore year when she studied art in Baltimore. Also, she's a tennis fiend, and good at it, too! Perhaps we'll remember her as a "knitting wonder," and then we may remember the excellent "feeds" she could prepare. Such versatility! You see there's really no end to her ability. And oh, such a kind heart lies behind that slow smile!

NANCY WALL: Alpha Sigma Alpha; Y. W. C. A.; Freshman Commission; College Choir; Cotillion Club; Association of Childhood Education; Dramatic Club; Pan-Hellenic Association, 3; Athletic Association.

Polly got this name from her bantam rooster, and it's followed her through college (the name, not the rooster). Her roommates delight in singing "Polly wally doodle" to her; however, she's beloved by those who know her well.

Only few have seen Polly in one of her black moods when she rises early in the morning—but things like these can be forgiven after breakfast. While we are munching popcorn together, or while we are doing almost anything else, she can give a sly wink and a smile that chases away Mr. Gloom.

FLETCHER WALKER: Dramatic Club: President, 4; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

Yo-ho-ho! and a barrel of fun—that's Fletcher! She's always ready to whoop it up a little, and that's why we like to play with her. A good sport and an ardent admirer of Shannon's! She sailed through two years of college life here without a worry—then in her last, her senior year, Miss Wheeler fixed Fletcher. Did we laugh! Deep in her heart, though, Fletcher loves to work, and into whatever pie she puts her finger, something big is bound to result.

LUCILE WARE: Sigma Sigma Sigma; Alpha Phi Sigma; Student Council; Class Representative, 4; Dramatic Club; College Choir, 2; Choral Club; Le Cercle Français; Mathematics Club; Cotillion Club; Chapel Committee, 2, 3; Y. W. C. A.; Membership and Alumnae Committee, 2, 3; World Fellowship Committee, 4; Athletic Association.

While the rest of us try to outshine and outshout one another in order to have our remarks heard, Polly very shyly makes the remark and wins the prize. In her varied school activities, her good qualities shine. We look at Polly and think of background, loyalty, and honor. We take our hats off to one who has the courage of her convictions—just as we would take our shoes off to Midge, who does not.

MARGUERITE AILINE YORK

GOLDIE WILLIAMS: Choral Club; Granddaughters' Club; Athletic Association; Class Volley Ball Team, 3; Y. W. C. A.

A true blue sport! Goldie's always ready for good, clean fun, and she'll enter into the spirit of things with vim and vigor. Don't let us mislead you—it's not the pleasures alone of school life that Goldie has sought. She will work diligently at any and all assigned tasks, but always gives you a bright smile and a gay greeting at every encounter—in short, the life of any gathering.

DOROTHY WISE: Pi Kappa Sigma; Alpha Kappa Gamma; Student Council: Ex-Officio, 4; House Council: Hall President, 2; Y. W. C. A.: Treasurer, 3, President, 4; Artists Dance Group; College Choir; College Orchestra; Cotillion Club; Chapel Committee; Student Day Committee; Student Standards Committee; Athletic Association; May Court, 4.

Who is the girl with the soft, sweet voice leading prayers in the evening? We see her every morning in chapel, giving of her talent willingly. It's Dot, of course, our Y. W. president. During her four years here she has held many interests, serving joyously in all of them. She is a girl who loves life, and life gives her friends wherever she goes.

JEAN WILLIS: Gamma Theta; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Dramatic Club; Granddaughters' Club; Cotillion Club; Association of Childhood Education; Pan-Hellenic Council, 3, 4; Senior Chaperon; Campus League, 2; Student Standards Committee, 3, 4.

A pleasant word and a big smile for every one! That's how we'll always remember Jean. She's seldom ruffled over her own problems, and she's understanding in helping others to solve theirs. That well-known song "Contented" seems to fit her perfectly. Jean's sweet, modest, and demure!! She has a twinkle in her eye sometimes, and we know she's happy about something. But if it's supposed to be a secret—why she'd even go to the guillotine before she'd tell!

MARGUERITE YORK: Alpha Phi Sigma; Beore Eh Thorn; Kappa Delta Pi: Treasurer, 4; Delta Theta Alpha; Dramatic Club; Orchesis; Secretary-Treasurer, 4; Mathematics Club; Chairman of Program Committee, 2; Monogram Club; President, 4, Secretary, 3; Varsity Basketball, 1, 2; Varsity Hockey, 2, 3; Y. W. C. A.; Town Girls' Committee, 1, Chairman Town Girls' Committee, 2, 3; Athletic Association.

Slight of statue, full of life, eyes that dance—that's Marguerite. No one would guess that Marguerite is the athletic type, but she is, most definitely. Athletics don't seem to interfere with her class work, for several honor societies have claimed her membership. We hope she won't let Annapolis interfere too much either!

Class History

ALL hands on deck! The ship "37" was leaving for a cruise in Farmville Bay with its green and white flag at the mast. . . . Freshmen from all parts of the country received their passports. We were greenest of the green and white with fright, as preparations for the voyage began. Knowing that the winds would be high, the tides swift, we realized the need of a sturdy captain. Caroline Jones, with a crew of hearty firstmates, was chosen to lead us safely through the first unknown channels and high seas of our journey. Completing the staff of officers, our pilot, Miss Iler, took the wheel, and our cruise was well underway. Being inexperienced sailors, we had to learn the rules—orientation classes quelled our greenness a bit. Smart sailors, at last!

But in the midst of the glee came a bugle blast from the conceited sophomores—"Rat formation! Scrub floors, carry laundry, clean cabins, wear hair in pig-tails, wear long black stockings, and use no make-up!" "Aye, Aye, Honorable Sophomores," was our only reply. On the last night of this week of terror we were made to suffer court martial and to answer for all our misdeeds. After a solemn ceremony we kneeled before the sophomores to receive blue and white "rat caps." These were to be worn until Christmas, unless, by chance, we should win the Thanksgiving hockey game from the superior sophomores. We won!! Thanksgiving Day—! Color Rush, with the gong of the six a. m. bell, and the hockey games gave the color cup to the green and whites—the first victory for our young seamen.

Each mile of sailing encouraged class spirit. The Lyceum numbers unveiled our appreciation for art. The Dramatic Club found our Romeos and Juliets; the Choir and Choral Club captured our nightingales; athletics gave us a place in the sporting field; debating developed Ben Websters. Gradually we became first-class sailors of the "37."

Remember, back in those days—freshmen went downtown whenever they wanted to? And then the terrible blow, learning our first lesson in obedience to superior authorities, when a sad lot of us were confined to campus for forgetting to "sign up"! Tumbling our way through the annual circus, second prize came to us! Provisions low and our sailors in need of rest, we docked for the Christmas holidays—our first real leave.

After fourteen glorious days, we were aboard again and ready for work and play. Our first class production brought Ted Shawn and His Ensemble of Men Dancers to our deck—another successful venture! Sailing on we soon reached another harbor, seemingly New Orleans—glamorous Mardi Gras—gay costumes, dancing, frivolity! Founders Day—the historic Fiftieth Anniversary of the navigability of Farmville Bay—brought the reunion of loyal classmates of many years before. Standing in the midst of that great body we felt chills for the first time, as the strains of "Alma Mater" resounded throughout the halls. Spring Cotillion brought Myron Lowther and his Orchestra all the way from Washington State—the last formal dance of the year. And never could we forget the chorus in "Sweet and Lovely," our short musical in the spring of '34—soft lights, melodious music, organdies in pastels! May Day—and the Longwood amphitheatre made a perfect setting for Margaret Parker, our "Alice in Wonderland"—queen of the May! The first of our cruise was nearly over. Land was in sight. Trying to dock we hit upon some rocks—exams. But commencement conquered the blows, and with "Aye! Aye! Captain," we saluted the green and white flag for a furlough of three months.

Again the gangplank was lowered, as we sophomores boarded the "37" for the second lap of our journey. Standing in line for inspection, we missed our beloved Miss Jennie Tabb—the ship had lost a valued friend and inspiration. Inspection, dismissal, and then we were ready for another year's work. Whoops of joy echoed over the ship praising the new swimming pool, which during the summer had been built behind the gym. We were mighty sophomores now. Poor Rats! We found compensation for what we had suffered the previous year in making them grin and bear it. Fall Cotillion with Johnny Long again added pleasure to the sailors' life. Tumbling for the second time in the circus we carried away the first prize, proving the old adage, "practice makes perfect." This year the usual one day for Thanksgiving gave way to a five-day holiday. We made the gangplank ring as we left! The hockey games, true to past tradition, again carried on the rivalry between classes, though the games were played after Thanksgiving this year, because of our longer holiday. Then came Christmas—!

That after-leave "let-down" couldn't last, as plans progressed for our class production—that glamorous glimpse of Radio City, New York, as "Life Begins at 8:30"! And remember, next, the best-loved of all Lyceums—the Siberian Singers! The ship's log next recorded another gala Mardi Gras festival. This time all girls were required to wear costumes and masks. Founders' Day, though lacking the brilliance of the year before, brought many alumnae back and was, moreover, inspirational. An added feature—the rocking, reeling dance of the Lyons' Club held on board our ship! What an occasion!! Dan Gregory made the ship dance over the waves at Spring Cotillion—the most "jaedle" of affairs! Another colorful May Day Pageant depicted "The May Pole of Merry Mount," with Jean McClure, Lady of May, and Jistine Cutshall, Lord of May—Lady Wyc Scott, as maid of honor, escorted by Lord Lelia Sanford. The sad time of graduation, taking many of the sophomores, was fast approaching. Among those sailors leaving was our worthy captain, Caroline Jones. Virginia Bean was chosen as our intellect and gave the salutatorian address at commencement. Anne Diggs was class historian, and Chic Dortch, our giftorian. With tear-filled eyes we came to the end of our second year—"Aye! Aye!" to our new captain, Mary Bowles, and we again went ashore. But it was not for long. . . .

For again in September the "37" rocked with the greetings of the sailors. Shall you ever forget Mary Bowles as "Little Miss Muffet" in the Circus? We worked hard for the prize, but the sophomores outdid us. The University of Virginia "Cavaliers" shook the gym at Fall Cotillion—while everybody started singing "Truckin' "!" Color Rush, again taking place after Thanksgiving, gave us Senior Building, although in the final events Red and Whites were the victors of the day. On Friday, December 13, we gave our last production—"Lucky Thirteen." Remember the time Chic had with her dance. . . . Irby's glittering "Top Hat," . . . Elsie's singing "Lady in Red," while Mary Virginia acted the part? Christmas again—the usual hubbub, as the music goes 'round. Amateur Hour on Bullfinch's Birdseed Program was broadcast from station S-I-N-G, bringing the prize to our hilarious crew. Scintillating, glamorous Mardi Gras—and this time costumes for men, too. Something new this year—water carnivals in the swimming pool. The sailors took first honors—sailors in water should be tops! Harry Reser brought his band to encourage "trucking" and "gee-geeing" at Cotillion. Spring elections gave major duties to the Sailor Class this time—some of our sailors were now commanders, with Bonnie Lane as Admiral of our Fleet. Mary B. was again to be our captain, as the good ship "37" sang "Anchors Aweigh" for the last time. May Day—"beauty" and "grandeur" are none too good to describe "The Golden Goddess," Lucy Potter, as she ascended the throne to be crowned queen. More rocks in landing—exams; but all sailors were requested to remain on board for commencement. We had many things to learn for the following year. As incoming seniors, we now marched for the first time beneath the Senior arch to the strains of Alma Mater. This Senior Chapel brought more tears than ever before, as we said "Farewell" to those who had always helped us weather the storms. Tac Waters, outgoing senior class president, was elected honorary member of our class.

And now, as seniors, we salute the green and white flag of the "37" for the last of the voyage. "Meet me at Shannon's at 10 p. m." and "March in caps and gowns to Saturday Chapel" were our slogans of privilege for the year. New "Shannon's" is ideal, isn't it? And the new theatre—! First came Installation, when, with our "little sisters," we marched down the aisle for the first time in senior gowns. Dr. Jarman placed the caps on our heads, and we literally became seniors—and had as much dignity as we could muster. We could at last give a dance for class production, too! Wasn't it fun?? And the Senior Figure—it sent shivers up and down our spines! In the Circus we depicted life among the mountaineers to a "T"—"The Martins and the Coys"! Sing on, Mary Lib and Elsie—you sho' had that swing! This gave us honorable mention when the prizes came 'round.

Oh! don't forget those midnight fire drills! "Wet a towel and grab a book"—this, to compose our minds in the rush from a burning building!

Color Rush brought victory to green and white. It was fitting for the seniors to live under a green and white banner for two days—the last Color Rush in which we'd participate. The hockey game brought defeat to our team but not to our spirits. Hallowe'en—the decks seethed with excitement, and the Virginia Cavaliers were too, too. . . . Class Sing brought us to our baby days again—a toy shop, and we loved it! Sailors won first prize for their "Blue and White" song in the contest sponsored by the A. A. Mardi Gras—more elaborate than ever before, with a floor show!—again added gayety to our cruise but dismay to the faculty. No Saturday classes, white dresses, old friends returning, speakers, a banquet, and a dance meant Founders' Day again. In the pageant representing four of the sections of Virginia, the seniors turned mountaineers once more. Spring Cotillion will live in our memories as the best of all. . . . Everyone on a merry-go-round, 'n' such truckin'! May Day—another extravaganza, presenting "Hansel and Gretel." The beautiful princess, Minnie Smith, was crowned queen with Zaida Thomas as maid of honor—our own shipmates!

Senior Chapel—we sang our farewell songs, and with hearts heavy, voices choked up, and eyes blurred, we formed an arch to see the junior class take our place. Commencement was here now. First came our senior banquet, with "Auld Lang Syne" drawing us closer than ever. Class Day Exercises in the auditorium—the Daisy Chain—friends and families, our proud spectators. The Lantern Parade—songs again and "little sisters," as the numerals "37" were placed in front of the Rotunda. The last mile complete—graduation . . . and good-bye to a course well run . . . to bonds that bind . . . mem'ries that bless . . . and to Alma Mater—thy daughters true, faithful, and loyal will be.

Dear Lillian & Vivian,

It has truly been a pleasure and a privilege to have known you two girls this year. Here's hoping we'll see lots of each other next year.

Love,

Marta Jane

Appreciation

As we add "Finis" to our work, it is with sincere appreciation in our hearts that we thank those whose cooperation has made possible this publication; namely:

Dunbar and Daniel Studio for their excellent photography;

Jahn and Ollier Engraving Company for their willing services and suggestions;

J. P. Bell Company, Inc., for their infinite patience in publishing this book;

Mr. T. A. McCorkle, Faculty Adviser, for his unfailing spirit, the accomplishment of innumerable tasks, and his constant encouragement in seeing us through to the end;

Miss Nancy Foster, Literary Adviser, for her constructive criticism and helpful guidance;

Miss Virginia Bedford, Art Adviser, for her indisputable judgment and contributions;

The Student Body for its cooperative spirit and interest which has been an ever-present incentive;

The Staff for its undying loyalty, dependability, and enthusiastic efforts.
